

My Travel Itinerary

TRIP TO WASHINGTON D.C.

3 - Day Itinerary

Day 1:

Start the day by catching the sunrise at Lincoln Memorial. Pay respects, and stop by the Vietnam and Korean War Memorial. Walk along the Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool toward the WW II Memorial. Keep walking until you run into the 555-foot Washington Monument. Visit the National Museum of African History. Walk to a local favorite, Founding Farmers for Brunch while passing the White House.

Walk down Pennsylvania Ave, passing the White House toward the National Mall. Grab an espresso at one of many Pret a Manger. Visit the U.S. Holocaust Memorial and National Museum of Natural History. Catch dinner one of D.C.'s finest Indian restaurants, Rasika.

Day 2:

Start the day in Capitol Hill. Stop by Ted's Bulletin for homemade pop tarts and coffee and stroll around Eastern Market before heading to the U.S. Capitol. Walk to the Air and Space Museum, stopping in the U.S. Botanic Garden along the way. Walk across the mall to Newseum for an epic exploration of history of our first amendment.

Grab an Uber to Union Market for afternoon drinks and local knick knacks to bring home. Uber it back to the Capitol Hill area and reserve a same-day reservation at Rose's Luxury for an epic dinner at a local favorite.

Day 3:

Start the day in Georgetown. Enjoy brunch at Farmers, Fishers, and Bakers. Either walk or Uber to M Street for street lined fashion and design shops. Walk around the charming Federal-style, cobbled stone streets. Check out the familiar steps from the 1970 film, The Exorcist while visiting Georgetown Waterfront and gothic architecture that is Georgetown University.

Head over to Embassy Row to see multimillion dollar homes where ambassadors reside. Walk around and explore historic homes. Purchase a coffee and snack while you people watch at Dupont Circle Fountain. Grab dinner at a well-known restaurant owned by Chef Jose Andres, Zaytinya.